PROFILE

Creative production director and co-founder of Super Motion, I have spent over ten years leading ambitious productions, global campaigns, brand films, digital content and social media, from brief to delivery.

Experienced in creating content for premium brands and international agencies, I ensure flawless creative execution, overseeing team coordination, artistic consistency, budget discipline and on-time delivery.

Beyond budgets, I drive creative decisions, source talent and orchestrate productions spanning filming, photo shoots, motion design, 3D, AI and hybrid formats.
